

Orielton Volunteer Role

Role Title:	Wildlife monitor
Where:	Orielton Field Centre
When:	All year.
Commitment:	As and when required
Duration:	From 1 hour to 4hours
Requirements:	Duties might include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Butterfly counts</li><li>• Bird surveys</li><li>• Wildlife flower surveys</li><li>• Water quality monitoring</li><li>• Bee surveys</li></ul> Able to inspect condition against agreed standards and note actions needed. Training will be given on the management aims and objectives of the FSC.
What's In It For You:	An opportunity to help the Field Studies Council, an environmental education charity, and to support the local and tourist communities. The chance to develop your own knowledge of Orielton grounds by interacting with members of the public and colleagues alike. Another benefit of volunteering is all the tea, cake and lunches you can eat, provided by the fantastic kitchen team.
Why We Want You:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Provide data and information for educational use at the centre</li><li>• Provide a basic set of information collected on a yearly basis as a legacy for future generations</li><li>• Inform national data sets that are used to help conserve species across the UK</li></ul> So we need your help!
Notes:	Assistance and training will be given where necessary.
For more information, contact:	Sarah Nicholls – Project Manager s.nicholls@field-studies-council.org

The Field Studies Council

The Field Studies Council is an independent environmental education charity committed to helping people, discover, explore, understand and be inspired by the natural world. Its network of centres provides day and residential courses for all ages from young children to retired adults from schools and communities throughout the UK. It also reaches many others through its publications and community-based programmes.

FSC Orielton

	Orielton Field Centre is an elegant Georgian House set in 48 hectares of its own grounds. It is located 3 miles south of Pembroke, West Wales, immediately adjacent to the Pembrokeshire Coast National park with its superb rocky shores, cliffs and beaches. The centre grounds are managed to promote diversity and include woodland, meadow, ponds and streams
	This centre provides a variety of courses including field courses for schools and universities, art and nature courses for adults and real family holidays as well as professional training for teachers. The Field Studies Council strives to invest in training and development which will create the environment for volunteers to maximise their potential in taking FSC forward.
	Looking after our customers is of paramount importance and the Office, Kitchen, Household and Education teams all play their part in ensuring we offer outstanding customer service. The management of the Centre is inclusive, with everyone being expected to contribute and having the opportunity to develop their skills and experience.